

With schools closed for the holidays, the Formentera Environment Department has ordered a range of garden upkeep and trimming to be performed in the Sant Francesc school zone. Last week crews pruned a number of trees, including one eucalyptus more than ten metres tall, and rid nearby pines of processionary nests. Pruning the tallest portions of trees makes the surrounding area safer by reducing the risk that branches are felled by strong winds.

8 January 2021
Communications Department
Consell de Formentera