

When the conference hall of the Formentera Day Centre opens its doors at 5.00pm tomorrow for the latest instalment of 'Xerrades per a famílies i docents' (Talking with families and teachers), wellness, health and food guide and researcher Marina Ribas asks, What does it mean to eat well?

The series is organised by Formentera's Department of Social Welfare with cooperation from the local education office, the teachers' resource centre (CEP) and the Formentera parents' association (FAPA).

Babysitting will be available during the talk.
